

SC-AFS and SCFWA Fall Workshop:
River Restoration and Fish Passage

November 19, 2009
Hobcaw Barony Discovery Center
Georgetown, SC

- 9:30-9:45 Welcome and Introduction
- 9:45-10:15 Bill Post, Diadromous Fish Coordinator, SCDNR
"Overview of South Carolina's Diadromous Fish"
- 10:15-10:45 Anna Toline, Senior Project Scientist ENTRIX, Inc.
"Implementation of ESA to Fish Passage Impediments"
- 10:45-11:00 Break
- 11:00-11:30 Jesse Waldrip, PE, Fish Passage Design Team Leader, Kleinschmidt Associates
"Effective Design of Upstream Passage for American Eel – An Engineering Perspective"
- 11:30-12:00 Brandon Kulik, Senior Fisheries Biologist, Kleinschmidt Associates
"Quantitative fish assemblage sampling -Use of Bio-indicators for Assessing River Restoration"
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch
- 1:00-1:30 Gerrit Jobsis, Southeast Regional Director, American Rivers
"Stream Barrier Removal - American Rivers' River Restoration Program"
- 1:30-2:00 Howard Schnabolk, NOAA Restoration Center
"NOAA's Open Rivers Initiative"
- 2:00-3:30 Panel Discussion: Questions from the audience